Library/Scholarly Information Services

Report to second update 2012
Our environment

Students
- Come using new technologies
- Need skills and information to support learning and teaching and research

Academics and Researchers
- Are using new forms of scholarly communication
- Need information, skills and new forms of support e.g. Epress

Community
- Can be engaged with the university in new ways
- Increasingly benefit from access to the scholarly output/conversation and collections
International trends

• overall university strategies and directions: supporting excellent teaching and research AND the wider community and making a global impact

• specific challenge in supporting research through advice and services in research data management
• creating and managing and agenda for change and the abilities, skills and expertise that are required in staff
• scholarly communication/publication changes are extraordinarily significant
• library as publisher - includes digitisation, institutional repositories and assistance in research data management
